It gathers all European structures that distribute short films ie:

- have the rights (for TV and/or theatrical distribution)
- have a stock of prints (35mm / video / 2K)

Key figures

- 25 countries (new countries from Eastern Europe)
- 40 different structures in the 2011 version (21 in 2004)
- A real dynamism in Europe for short film distribution

What can you find on the guide? (2)

A practical tool for programmers

For each country:

- Key figures of short film industry (number of films, public fundings for shorts...)
- Cinema networks, main cinema schools, TV broadcasting short films

For each structure:

- Description of the activities
- Distribution formats and modes / conditions / planning support
- Team / people to get in touch to find films

What for?

- To centralize the information for every person / programmer / cinema wishing to screen short films
- To make the access to shorts and thus the circulation of European shorts easier, throughout Europe
- To better the possibilities for short films to be shown outside their country of production
- To create a network of European short film agencies?

Where you can find it?

- Available freely online on our website : www.agencecm.com
on the page « European guide »
- Available in English and French versions
- Will be online in a few weeks or day... as we still miss some information about structures / work-in-progress at the moment
